REFLECTION

Spiritual writers speak of the journey that we must make to God. The point is valid but there is a danger that we may think that God is stationary somewhere and we must journey to him, that it's all up to us. No, our relationship with God is far more dynamic and God is always journeying towards us, search for us, calling out to us by name as he did with Adam and Eve in the garden. The season of Advent prepares us to celebrate God's coming to us as a babe at Bethlehem and encourages us to look forward to Christ's final coming in glory. What we are called to do is to 'prepare a way for the Lord' to come to us. And what is that way? Well, today's responsorial psalm says that 'justice shall march before him'. To prepare the way, we need to act with justice and promote justice, both in our personal lives and globally.

Today's first reading captures beautifully the longing of God to be united with us: 'He is like a shepherd leading his flock, gathering the lambs in his arms, holding them against his breast, and leading to their rest the mother ewes.' (Isa 40:11) For a few moments imagine yourself being held in the loving arms of God and leaning against his breast. That is the kind of intimacy God desires with us. We pray: 'Lord help us to prepare a way for you to come to us. Help us to remove any barriers we create, whether consciously or unconsciously, that keep us from your loving embrace.'

God's Word 2020 Daily Reflections

CHRISTMAS STAMPS Please save any stamps for the Peruvian Missions. Place them in the box on the table in the foyer. Thank you.

READERS – ALL HANDS ON DECK

A number of readers/commentators will be required for the Advent Novena Masses and the Christmas liturgies. Even if you have been unable to read this year but are planning to attend an Advent Novena and/or Christmas Mass, please consider volunteering on the sheets in the foyer (use your own pen or one of the sanitised pencils). This will avoid last-minute recruiting which is stressful and takes away from dignity of the ceremony. Please be prepared to step in where you see the need. Thanks to you all.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY FR CASEY!

May God give you the strength, courage, power and wisdom to smoothly surmount all the challenges in your faithful and loving service to our parish. We thank God for His presence and blessings in your life. Enjoy your special day on Monday 7 December.

Dear parishioners,

I am pleased that with all our prayers, patience and cooperation, NSW had recorded zero cases of community transmission of Coronavirus. As such, further easing of restrictions was announced by the NSW government. From Monday, 7 December, our church can be allowed 460 attendees with 2-square-metre rule.

But we still have to take all reasonable precautions to protect the health of everyone involved and to observe the directives we have received. Dot markers are placed where people should sit. No more booking required on all masses EXCEPT ON THE 6:00pm CHRISTMAS EVE AND 9:00am AND 10:30am CHRISTMAS DAY MASSES.

It is still a requirement that attendees should write their name, telephone or email address in the sheet provided upon church entry at main door on weekends, side doors on weekdays.

As you would all be aware, the government has strongly recommended the wearing of face masks in closed-in places, including places of worship. Whilst this is not compulsory, we would urge you to consider complying for your benefit and that of everyone else too. Congregation singing will be permitted provided that mask is worn. We are trying as much as possible to keep our church a safe place in which all are welcome to come and worship the Lord. I, for one choose to wear a mask, particularly when distributing communion and when meeting and talking to people. I know you will understand that I do so for our common protection.

Prayers against the Spread of Corona Virus

God our Father, we come to you in our need. We ask for your protection against the COVID-19 Corona Virus, that has claimed many lives and has affected many. We pray for your grace for the people tasked with studying the nature and cause of this virus and its disease and of stemming the tide of its transmission. Guide the hands and minds of medical experts that they may minister to the sick with competence and compassion and of those governments and private agencies that must find a cure and a solution to this pandemic. We pray for those afflicted, may they be restored to health soon. Grant us the grace to work for good of all and to help those in need. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your son, who lives and reign with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. AMEN.
