REFLECTION

The Passion Narrative unfolds the drama with a cast of characters: there are the main protagonist, the bad guys, the by-standers and extras. They represent the different types of persons in real life.

The extras and onlookers form the vast majority who welcome Jesus in their lives, but whose faith is unstable. They can change their allegiance whenever or wherever is convenient. They have no stand of their own; they place their allegiance on personages or political parties that sometimes run contrary to the voice of their own conscience.

The Sanhedrin, the scribes, and Pharisees represent the self-righteous who are ready to condemn anybody based simply on their own judgement, which at times depends on their whims and caprices. They mark or brand people as 'addicts' or 'thieves' or beyond redemption.

Pilate stands for the powerful on earth, ready to execute anyone who is a threat to the throne or the political interest of the empire. They are deaf to the voice of their conscience and are ready to wash away their guilt. They are indifferent to the cause of the poor and the innocent.

The apostles represent those who wholeheartedly follow Jesus in good times but abandon him when things 'go wrong' because they have not understood that discipleship entails carrying one's cross. But Jesus prays for them so that once they have recovered at Easter, they will strengthen their brethren and become the pillars of community of believers.

The plots and sub-plots of our lives –complete with suffering, conflicts, struggles, joys and sorrows, success and failure–will find meaning if they are joined with the sacrifice of Jesus for the sake of the beloved. God's Word Daily Reflections 2023

2nd April Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

First Reading Is 50:4-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

I did not cover my face against insult and I know I will not be ashamed.

The Lord has given me
a disciple's tongue.
So that I may know how to reply to the wearied
he provides me with speech.
Each morning he wakes me to hear,
to listen like a disciple.
The Lord has opened my ear.
For my part, I made no resistance,
neither did I turn away.
I offered my back to those who struck me,
my cheeks to those who tore at my beard;
I did not cover my face
against insult and spittle.
The Lord comes to my help,
so that I am untouched by the insults.
So, too, I set my face like flint;
I know I shall not be shamed.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 21:8-9. 17-20. 23-24. R. v.2

(R.) My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

1. All who see me deride me.
They curl their lips, they toss their heads.
'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him;
let him release him if this is his friend.' (R.)
2. Many dogs have surrounded me,
a band of the wicked beset me.
They tear holes in my hands and my feet.
I can count every one of my bones. (R.)
3. They divide my clothing among them.
They cast lots for my robe.
O Lord, do not leave me alone,
my strength, make haste to help me! (R.)
4. I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled.
'You who fear the Lord give him praise;
all sons of Jacob, give him glory.
Revere him, Israel's sons.' (R.)

Second Reading Phil 2:6-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

He humbled himself to become like us and God raised him on high.

His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself
to assume the condition of a slave,
and became as men are, and being as all men are,
he was humbler yet, even to accepting death,
death on a cross.

But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Gospel Acclamation Phil 2:8-9

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Christ became obedient for us even to death dying on the cross.

Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

GOSPEL Mt 26:14 – 27:66

The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Matthew.....

Last Sunday (26/3) 15 of us gathered in the Clune Centre (Parish Hall).

It was an wonderful night that started with pizza and garlic bread. After we prayed, the group enjoyed a soulful discussed the meaning of Palm Sunday; through the Old Testament and the New Testament.

This event was filled with games where we split into 2 groups and had a Spelling bee, played Pictionary & Charades. Other game we played was 'races to pop balloons' that had hidden scriptures inside. Finally, the completive match of 'Find the scripture reference in the Bible'. It was invigorating.

I want to send major congratulations to Group 1, who were the overall Champions of the night.

Sacramental News

Fr. Casey and the Sacramental Team would like to congratulate the 53 Candidates who celebrated the Sacrament of First Reconciliation on the 29th and 30th March. Fr. Casey, Fr. Allan and Fr. Rafael gave time to celebrate the liturgy of this sacred occasion.

Since the beginning of March, each Candidate went through the Sacramental Program with the 4 week Family Group Sessions. There were 5 groups which were led by 9 Parent Facilitators. The feedback was positive and met with uplifting commitment. Our parish cherish all our volunteers and the kind intentions from all committed families.

We wish all our Candidates the best in their loving bond with God. May they be protected with God's loving arms. We look forward to seeing them again for the Sacrament of First Holy Communion. The Sacramental Team will be honoured to see each Candidate through. The Family Group sessions will resume from the 9th May.
