RELECTION

Jesus speaks to a Samaritan woman, and through her, he speaks to us. He describes the kind of worship 'in spirit and in truth'. To worship God in spirit and truth implies that our devotion and prayer is not simply to be a matter of mechanical formal observances. Indeed, such formal observances are, in the sight of God, of infinitely less consequence than the disposition of heart. This is not to say that formal religious observances are futile or devoid of value. Indeed, they are essential to Christians, since they are an expression of our union with Christ's mystical body, the Church. Nevertheless, our every thought and deed, however mundane, if done with the intention of expressing the glory of God, it can also become a true and genuine act of worship—a living sacrifice of praise, a passionate song of love, and even a heart-felt plea for forgiveness.

Third Sunday of Lent Year A 3 Mar 2024

First Reading Exodus 17:3-7

A reading from the book of Exodus

Give us water to drink..

The whole community of the sons of Israel moved from their camp in the desert of Zin at the Lord's command, to travel the further stages; and they pitched camp at Rephidim where there was no water for the people to drink. So they grumbled against Moses. 'Give us water to drink' they said. Moses answered them. 'Why do you grumble against me? Why do you put the Lord to the test?' But tormented by thirst, the people complained against Moses. 'Why did you bring us out of Egypt?' they said. 'Was it so that I should die of thirst, my children too, and my cattle?' Moses appealed to the Lord. 'How am I to deal with this people?' he said. 'A little more and they will stone me!' The Lord said to Moses, 'Take with you some of the elders of Israel and move on to the forefront of the people; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the river, and go. I shall be standing before you there on the rock, at Horeb. You must strike the rock, and water will flow from it for the people to drink.' This is what Moses did, in the sight of the elders of Israel. The place was named Massah and Meribah because of the grumbling of the sons of Israel and because they put the Lord to the test by saying, 'Is the Lord with us, or not?'

Responsorial Psalm Ps 94:1-2. 6-9. R. v.8

(R.) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

1. Come, ring out our joy to the Lord;
hail the rock who saves us.
Let us come before him, giving thanks,
with songs let us hail the Lord. (R.)
2. Come in; let us bow and bend low;
let us kneel before the God who made us for he is our God and we
the people who belong to his pasture,
the flock that is led by his hand. (R.)
3. O that today you would listen to his voice!
'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the desert
when your fathers put me to the test;
when they tried me, though they saw my work.' (R.)

Second Reading Rom 5:1-2, 5-8

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

The love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given to us.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ by faith, we are judged righteous and at peace with God since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. This hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us. We were still helpless when at his appointed moment Christ died for sinful men. It is not easy to die even for a good man – though of course for someone really worthy, a man might be prepared to die – but what proves that God loves us is that Christ died for us while we are still sinners.

Gospel Acclamation See John 4:42. 15

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Lord, you are truly the Saviour of the world;

give me living water, that I may never thirst again.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel John 4:5-42

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

The water that I shall give will become a spring of eternal life.

Jesus came to the Samaritan town called Sychar, near the land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Jacob's well is there and Jesus, tired by the journey, sat straight down by the well. It was about the sixth hour. When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, 'Give me a drink.' His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, 'What? You are a Jew and you ask me, a Samaritan, for a drink?' – Jews, in fact, do not associate with Samaritans. Jesus replied:

'If you only knew what God is offering
and who it is that is saying to you:
Give me a drink,
you would have been the one to ask,
and he would have given you living water.'

'You have no bucket, sir,' she answered 'and the well is deep: how could you get this living water? Are you a greater man than our father Jacob who gave us this well and drank from it himself with his sons and his cattle?' Jesus replied:

'Whoever drinks this water
will get thirsty again;
but anyone who drinks the water that I shall give
will never be thirsty again:
the water that I shall give will turn into a spring inside him, welling up to eternal life.'

'Sir,' said the woman 'give me some of that water, so that I may never get thirsty and never have to come here again to draw water.' 'Go and call your husband' said Jesus to her 'and come back here.' The woman answered, 'I have no husband.' He said to her, 'You are right to say, "I have no husband"; for although you have had five, the one you have now is not your husband. You spoke the truth there.' 'I see you are a prophet, sir' said the woman. 'Our fathers worshipped on this mountain, while you say that Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship.' Jesus said:

'Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.
You worship what you do not know;
we worship what we do know;
for salvation comes from the Jews.
But the hour will come – in fact it is here already – when true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth:
that is the kind of worshipper
the Father wants.
God is spirit,
and those who worship
must worship in spirit and truth.'

The woman said to him, 'I know that Messiah – that is, Christ – is coming; and when he comes he will tell us everything.' 'I who am speaking to you,' said Jesus 'I am he.'

Many Samaritans of that town had believed in him on the strength of the woman's testimony when she said, 'He told me all I have ever done,' so, when the Samaritans came up to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed for two days, and when he spoke to them many more came to believe; and they said to the woman. 'Now we no longer believe because of what you told us; we have heard him ourselves and we know that he really is the saviour of the world.'

WHY YEAR A READINGS AND NOT YEAR B?

On the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays of Lent, those in the RCIA program undertake the Scrutinies, three ceremonies of healing and strengthening in preparation for the Easter Vigil. The Church recommends the Scripture readings of Year A as being most appropriate on these three Sundays, even in Years B and C.

Samoa may be a country surrounded by water, but access to clean drinking water is scarce in some areas with many families facing extreme hardship as a result. Leaia lives with her 5 children, husband, brother and sister in law on island of Upolu in Samoa. Not having access to a reliable source of clean water caused the family to worry. Their home is not connected to a piped water system, so they had to rely solely on rainwater collected in old fridges. When their rainwater runs out, Leaia had to walk with her young children to collect water in buckets and containers from a neighbour down the street.

With the support of Caritas Australia's local partner, Caritas Samoa, a water tank was installed at Leaia's home. Next year, they will also have toilet built, with support of Caritas Samoa, which will further improve their health and living conditions.

Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build better tomorrow for all future generations.

You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available at the church foyer, or by visiting caritas.org.au/projectcompassion or by calling 1800 024 413.

Visit by Apostolic Nuncio

On Sunday 25th February, our parish was honoured with the visit by the Apostolic Nuncio to Bahrain, Kuwait & Qatar, His Excellency Archbishop Eugene Nugent. His family's connection to this Parish started from the establishment of the original Church of Our Lady of Fatima Kingsgrove, which is now the Clune Centre. We thank the Nugent family for the extension of their time as His Excellency celebrated the 10am Sunday Mass. This coincided with the kindergarten welcome Mass where each student was given a special blessing.
