REFLECTION

In Galatians we read this familiar passage; "What the Spirit brings is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness and self control."

Do we see these as our gifts too? Recall people in your life who shine with these qualities. From my Nana, I learned kindness, Aunt Hazel always showed me love, my sister is full of goodness. Can you name some people in your life who embody these gifts and qualities. What gift can you offer the world? Give thanks for the presence of the Spirit in your life and in the world. Open your heart to receive the Spirit this Pentecost Sunday. God's Word 2024

Pentecost Sunday

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak different languages.

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 103:1. 24. 29-31. 34. R. v.30

(R.) Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

1. Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are,
How many are your works, O Lord!
The earth is full of your riches. (R.)

2. You take back your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came.
You send forth your spirit, they are created;
and you renew the face of the earth. (R.)
3. May the glory of the Lord last for ever!
May the Lord rejoice in his works!
May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
I find my joy in the Lord. (R.)

Second Reading

Galatians 5:16-25

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians

If you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you. When self-indulgence is at work the results are obvious: fornication, gross indecency and sexual irresponsibility; idolatry and sorcery; feuds and wrangling, jealousy, bad temper and quarrels; disagreements, factions, envy; drunkenness, orgies and similar things. I warn you now, as I warned you before: those who behave like this will not inherit the kingdom of God. What the Spirit brings is very different: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness and self-control. There can be no law against things like that, of course. You cannot belong to Christ Jesus unless you crucify all self-indulgent passions and desire.

Since the Spirit is our life, let us be directed by the Spirit.

Sequence

Holy Spirit, Lord of light,

From the clear celestial height

Thy pure beaming radiance give.

Come, thou Father of the poor,

Come with treasures which endure;

Come, thou light of all that live!

Thou, of all consolers best,

Thou, the soul's delightful guest,

Dost refreshing peace bestow;
Thou in toil art comfort sweet;
    Pleasant coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.
Light immortal, light divine,
    Visit thou these hearts of thine,
And our inmost being fill:
If thou take thy grace away,
    Nothing pure in man will stay;
All his good is turned to ill.
Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
    On our dryness pour thy dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away:
Bend the stubborn heart and will;
    Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.
Thou, on us who evermore
    Thee confess and thee adore,
With thy sevenfold gifts descend:
Give us comfort when we die;
    Give us life with thee on high;
Give us joys that never end.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Alleluia!

Gospel

John 15:26-27; 16:12-15

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

The Spirit of truth will guide you into all the truth.

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘When the Advocate comes,
whom I shall send to you from the Father,
the Spirit of truth who issues from the Father,
he will be my witness.
And you too will be witnesses,
because you have been with me from the outset.

I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.
But when the Spirit of truth comes
he will lead you to the complete truth,
since he will not be speaking as from himself
but will say only what he has learnt;
and he will tell you of the things to come.
He will glorify me,
since all he tells you
will be taken from what is mine.
Everything the Father has is mine;
that is why I said:
All he tells you
will be taken from what is mine.’

ROSARY BEADS MAKING - Expressions of interest

Our Parishioners Janice & Willie Quan are asking our community for expressions of interest in learning how to make Rosary beads sets. The Quan family have been donating their work to our Parish for many years. Our Parish have been distributing their work at many occasions including feast days, the children's liturgies and to our reflection days.

Below is a brief story on their impact of their mission for the world to pray.

..Where we grew up in the Solomon Islands, there were no rosary beads for sale. This had prompted us make the rosary beads....

In 1995, we started making the rosary beads and sent them to the Missionary Sisters and the Archbishops of Solomon Islands. The rosary beads were distributed to various missions around the islands for free. Slowly, the mission extended to Papua New Guinea, Tonga, Fiji, Samoa, New Caledonia included the missionary and Carmelite Sisters ...To date, our rosary beads has reached 46+ countries; 100 Catholic Primary schools around Australia and it is estimated around 240,000 pairs of Rosary Beads had been made.

If you are willing to make in impact as strong as Janice and Willie, please contact our parish on 02 9150 9663 or email the office kingsgroveolf@gmail.com by Friday 31st May.

Tongues: A Gift of Roses

By Father Tom Forrest

a Redemptorist priest, a worldwide leader of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal

(Reprinted from New Covenant's Article "Tongues: A Gift of Roses")

If some evening a loving husband comes home with a gift of an expensive ring and a beautiful rose, both gifts are expressions of love, though the difference in cost is great. This doesn't make one of the gifts valuable and the other without value. The wife receives both with appreciation. She doesn't keep the ring and throw away the rose. That's the way it is with the gift of tongues. Paul doesn't call it the most valuable of the gifts, but that doesn't make it valueless. It remains a gift from God, a gift of love which should be sought, treasured, used and, as Paul teaches us, kept in its right place. While he points out that some of the Corinthians do not understand its place among the other gifts and have abused it, he also makes clear that he does not disdain this or any gift that comes from God: "I thank God that I speak in tongues more than you all". He tells us not to "forbid speaking in tongues" (1 Cor. 14:18, 39, 5). He certainly is not throwing away the rose, even though he is making it clear that it is not the diamond ring, the greatest of the gifts. Because tongues is a gift from God, it should be appreciated. There are also other reasons.

It Is Humiliating

If somebody says to me, "That tongues business is stupid", I usually say, "You're right, humanly speaking". That is one of its values. No matter how strange or silly it seems, it remains the will of a God whose ways are not our ways. To be prudent, humanly, I must control my speech. I impress people by my clear, logical choice of words. But when I speak in tongues, all of that is surrendered to God. If the Spirit moves me to speak what to others may seem like foolish sounds or "with sighs too deep for words" (Rom. 8:26), then I am willing to be jumble and foolish for Christ's sake - the same Christ who, for my sake, became man and suffered the foolishness of the cross. To pray in tongues is to step out in faith. Unless I believed in a living God, unless I believed in his Son, in the Spirit, and in the gifts that the Spirit brings, how could I possibly utter such strange sounds? I pray in tongues because God calls me to, even though it conflicts with all human wisdom.

It is A Gift of Prayer

The Holy Spirit gives me a hunger for praising God. I want to shout His goodness from the rooftops. I look for words of praise and begin to say that God is sweet, wonderful, splendid, magnificent, divine, and all the other words I can think of. Yet, God's Spirit flooding my heart calls me to go beyond these weak human words that do not come near expressing the mystery that is God.

I surrender myself, my thoughts, and words, to the Spirit. Through the gift of tongues mysterious words come that aren't mine, words decided upon and formulated by the Holy Spirit, giving to Jesus the praise He deserves, of which I by myself am incapable.

The Holy Spirit in me praises Jesus, and as He does, I am freed from the need to develop the thoughts and to formulate their expression in words. There is a bubbling or humming of spontaneous sounds that I know are giving glory to Christ. Because they do not need my direction, I am free to know the nearness of Jesus and the reality of God's action within me.

John 14:15-21

<sup>15</sup> "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. <sup>16</sup> And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. <sup>17</sup> This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him. You know him, because He abides with you, and he will be in you.

<sup>18</sup> "I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. <sup>19</sup> In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. <sup>20</sup> On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. <sup>21</sup> They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them."

John 20:19-23

"Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

And when He had said this, He breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the holy Spirit;

Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Visit by Fr. Jeffery Quintela,

Saturday, 11 May 2024

Last Saturday, we had the privilege of listening to Fr. Jeffrey Quintela, Chief exorcist from the Diocese of Antipolo, Philippines; talk about spiritual warfare.

The event started with a concelebrated mass officiated by Fr. Jeffrey and concelebrated with Fr. Casey, Fr. Emmanuel, and Fr. Nestor.

The 3- hour conference that followed was truly a nourishment to the soul. Knowing who the real enemy is and learning how to win the spiritual battle with a good fight of faith, Fr. Jeffrey also mentioned that it was similar situation when we were in the covid and had to work from home; Jesus in Heaven is also “working from home”; but to have intimate relationship with Jesus, we need to receive Him in the Holy Eucharist at mass.

The audience came from many places in and out of Sydney and the event was well attended despite of the bad weather and the Our Lady of Fatima celebration at St Mary’s Cathedral that coincided with his visit. It was indeed a very spiritually enlightening evening for everyone present.

It was indeed a night to remember.

We are very grateful to OLOF parish for hosting this event and to Fr. Jeffrey for imparting to us this spiritual knowledge.
